This includes: (a) the categories of Personal Information we have collected about you; (b) the categories of sources from which that Personal Information came from; (c) our purposes for collecting this Personal Information; (d) the categories of third parties with whom we have shared your Personal Information; and (e) if we have “sold” or “shared” or disclosed your Personal Information, a list of categories of third parties to whom we “sold” or “shared” your Personal Information, and a separate list of the categories of third parties to whom we disclosed your Personal Information to. Exercising Your CPRA Privacy Rights

To exercise the rights described above, please submit a request (a “Consumer Request”) to us by either:

- Calling us at toll free number (866) 542-2736;
- Emailing us at privacy-compliance@cnhind.com; or
- Completing the online Privacy Request Form.

If you (or your Authorized Agent) submit a Consumer Request to delete your information online, we may use a two-step process in order to confirm that you want your Personal Information deleted. This process may include verifying your request through your email address on record, calling you on your phone number on record (which may include an automated dialer), sending you a text message and requesting that you text us a confirmation, and/or sending you a confirmation through US mail. By making a Consumer Request, you consent to us contacting you in one or more of these ways.

If you fail to make your Consumer Request in accordance with the ways described above, we may either treat your request as if it had been submitted with our methods described above or provide you with information on how to submit the request or remedy any deficiencies with your request.

Only you, or your Authorized Agent that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a Consumer Request related to your Personal Information. To designate an Authorized Agent, see Authorized Agents below.

All Consumer Requests must:

- Provide sufficient information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected Personal Information or an Authorized Agent of such a person. This may include verification of your contact information that we may have on record by matching at least 2 pieces of Personal Information that we have determined to be reliable for the purposes of verifying a consumer. We reserve the right to modify the verification process as necessary or to request additional pieces of Personal Information for verification purposes, each based on the sensitivity of your Personal Information.
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with Personal Information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm which Personal Information relates to you or the individual for whom you are making the request as their Authorized Agent.

Making a Consumer Request does not require you to create an account with us. However, we do consider requests made through your password protected account sufficiently verified when the request relates to Personal Information associated with that specific account.

We will only use Personal Information provided in a Consumer Request to verify the requestor’s identity or authority to make the request.

Authorized Agents

You may authorize your agent to exercise your rights under the CPRA on your behalf by registering your agent with the California Secretary of State or by granting them power of attorney to exercise your rights in accordance with applicable laws (an “Authorized Agent”). We may request that your Authorized Agent submit proof of identity and that they have been authorized exercise your rights on your behalf. We may deny a request from your Authorized Agent to exercise your rights on your behalf if they fail to submit adequate proof of identity or adequate proof that they have the authority to exercise your rights.

Response Timing and Format

We will respond to a Consumer Request within ten (10) days of its receipt. We will generally process these requests within forty-five (45) days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to an additional 45 days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

If you have an account with us, we will deliver our written response to that account. If you do not have an account with us, we will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option.

In response to a Right to Know or Data Portability Consumer Request, we will provide you with all relevant information we have collected or maintained about you on or after January 1, 2022. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable. For Data Portability Consumer Request, we will select a format to provide your Personal Information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another entity without hindrance, such as a CSV file.

We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your Consumer Request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. We reserve the right to consider more than two (2) total Right to Know or Data Portability Consumer Requests (or combination of the two) in a twelve (12) month period to be repetitive and/or excessive and require a fee. If we determine that your Consumer Request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.

9. YOUR CHOICES REGARDING OUR “SALE” OR “SHARING” OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

“Sale” of Your Personal Information

You have the right to direct us to not sell your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration at any time (the “right to opt-out”). Consumers who opt-in to Personal Information sales may opt-out of future sales at any time.

“Sharing” of Your Personal Information

You have the right to direct us to not share your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising, which is showing advertising on other websites or other media based on your browsing history with our Websites (the “right to opt-out”). Consumers who opt-in to our sharing of Personal Information for these purposes may opt-out of future such sharing at any time.

How You May Opt-Out of Our Sale or Sharing of Your Personal Information

To exercise the right to opt-out of the “sale” of your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration and of “sharing” your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising, you (or your authorized representative) may adjust your cookie preferences by visiting the Website and clicking the Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information link at the footer of the Website.

Once you make an opt-out request, we will wait at least twelve (12) months before asking you to reauthorize Personal Information sales. However, you may change your mind and opt back into the sale of Personal Information at any time by visiting the Website and clicking the Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information link at the footer of the Website.

You do not need to create an account with us to exercise your opt-out rights. You may be required to provide us with additional contact information so that we may verify your request to opt-in to the sale of your Personal Information. We will only use Personal Information provided in an opt-out request to review and comply with the request.

If you (or your Authorized Agent) submit a request to opt-in to our “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information, we will use a two-step process in order to confirm that you want to opt-in for such “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information. This process may include verifying your request through your email address on record, calling you on your phone number on record (which may be through the use of an automated dialer), sending you a text message and requesting that you text us a confirmation (which may be through the use of an automated dialer), and/or sending you a confirmation through US mail. By making a Consumer Request, you consent to us contacting you in one or more of these ways.

Browser Privacy Control Signals

You may also exercise your right to opt-out of the “sale” of your Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration and “sharing” your Personal Information for the purposes of cross-context behavioral advertising by setting the privacy control signal on your browser, if your browser supports it. We currently recognize and support the following privacy signals sent by browsers:

- Global privacy control (for more information on how to configure your browser to send this signal, please see <https://globalprivacycontrol.org/>).

When we receive one of these privacy control signals, we will opt you out of any further “sales” or “sharing” of your Personal Information when you interact with our Websites through that browser and on that device. We will only be able to propagate your choice to opt-out to your account if you are currently logged in when we receive the privacy control signal from your browser. When we are able to propagate your choice to your account, you will be opted out of “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information on all browsers and devices on which you are logged in, and for both online and offline “sales” and “sharing.” In the event you have affirmatively opted-in to our “sale” and “sharing” of your Personal Information as described above and we receive a privacy control signal from your browser, we will request further instructions from you before you are opted out of any further “sale” or “sharing.”

When we receive a privacy control signal, we may also process it in a frictionless manner, which prohibits us from: (a) charging you a fee or requiring any valuable consideration; or (b) changing your experience with our products and services. You may configure the privacy control signal to operate in a frictionless manner by consulting the documentation for your browser or plug-in that provides the privacy control signal. If your privacy control signal conflicts with any settings in your account, we will comply with the privacy control signal and not “sell” or “share” your personal information.
